

I hate telemarketers interrupting my precious little time with my family. I love this law! I have my phone back! And doesn't the constitution say that what is not expressly given to the Federal government is the domain of the states? And teh fed law allows for charities and political calls - news flash! what makes you think they don't interupt my time?!?! Don't change our law!